4. PROJECT CONCEPT & STRUCTURE

4.1 BACKGROUND

It is proposed to prepare an Inventory of Occupiers generating Bio-Medical Wastes in Nashik District in state of Maharashtra. The overall aim of this initiative is to enlist and prepare an inventory of occupiers generating BMW and compliance as per BMWM Rules, 2016 in Nashik District.

4.2 CURRENT SCENARIO

Medical care is vital for our life, health and well being and there has been phenomenal increase in the healthcare facilities (for humans and animals) in India. It is estimated that Indian health care industry is growing at a rate of 12% per annum.

The Biomedical waste means any waste, which is generated during the diagnosis, treatment or immunisation of human beings or animals or research activities pertaining thereto or in the production or testing of biological or in health camps, including the categories mentioned in Schedule I of the Biomedical Waste Management Rules, 2016, as amended. It must be properly managed to avoid the harm for the general public, specifically healthcare and sanitation workers who are continuously uncovered to biomedical waste as an occupational hazard. Appropriate handling, treatment and disposal of wastes are essential elements of health care management programme. Correct method helps protect health care personnel, patients and the local society.

Studies conducted in many parts of the World reveals that the quantity of BMW is reaching to alarming proportions. Many developed countries across the world are trying to establish tools so as to address BMW being generated in these countries.

4.2.1. Bio-Medical Wastes and associated environmental and health issues

The waste generated from medical activities can be hazardous, toxic and even lethal because of their high potential for diseases transmission. The hazardous and toxic parts of waste from health care establishments comprising infectious, biomedical and radioactive material as well as sharps (hypodermic needles, knives, scalpels etc) constitute a grave risk, if these are not properly treated / disposed or are allowed to get mixed with other municipal waste. These medical waste are mounting problems faced by the society due to exposure to untreated disposal of Biomedical wastes from a large number of health centers .The guidelines for their orderly disposal as provided in the legal framework is overlooked. Health care wastes are produced in hospitals, health centers, clinics, nursing homes, pathological laboratories, research institutions, veterinary clinics, midwifery centers and other medical cares conducted at home.
4.2.2. Need for study and inventorization

In order to protect health and environment against any adverse effects from Bio-Medical Waste regulatory drives have been initiated from international, national and state level authorities. Ministry of Environment, Forests & Climate Change, Govt. of India has notified Bio-Medical Waste (Management & Handling) Rules, 2016 and amendment Rules 2018.

All State Pollution Control Boards are the prescribed authority for enforcement of the provisions of the Bio-Medical Waste (Management & Handling) Rules in respect of States. Bio-Medical Waste being infectious needs proper collection, segregation, transportation, storage, treatment and disposal as per guidelines of the Bio-Medical Waste (Management & Handling) Rules, 2016, as amended.

As per Schedule-I of Bio-medical Waste 2016 is described as Human Anatomical Waste, Animal Waste, Microbiology & Biotechnology Waste, Waste Sharps, Discarded Medicines and Cytotoxic drugs, Solid Waste, Soiled Waste, Liquid Waste, Incineration Ash, and Chemical Waste and is required to be segregated as per colour code (Yellow, Red, White-translucent, Blue). BMW is potentially hazardous to environment and human health, if not handled in an environmentally sound manner.

The hazardous and toxic parts of waste from health care establishments comprising infectious, biomedical and radio-active material as well as sharps (hypodermic needles, knives, scalpels etc) constitute a grave risk, if these are not properly treated / disposed or are allowed to get mixed with other municipal waste. These medical waste are mounting problems faced by the society due to exposure to untreated disposal of Biomedical wastes from a large number of health centers. The guidelines for their orderly disposal as provided in the legal framework is overlooked.

In order to propagate the harmful effects of Bio-medical Waste, Maharashtra State Pollution Control Board has decided to conduct inventorisation of BMW generators in Nashik district and prepare comprehensive status report consisting of digital database and software based analysis on “INVENTORIZATION OF OCCUPIERS IN NASHIK DISTRICT”. This will cover all Hospitals & Health care units to bring them under the Bio-medical Waste (Management and Handling) Rules 2016 as amended.

4.2.3. Objective of the study

The objective of this inventorisation of HCE’s in Nashik district is to create digital database with software based analysis tools to enforcement of BMW Rules, water prevention and control of pollution Act 1974 and Air prevention and control of pollution Act 1981 by adopting uniform approach and methodology. The main objectives of this study are as follows:

- To identify and list the occupiers generating BMW and collect KYC and other related records of HCEs
- To record the present status of BMW Authorisation and Consent under Water/ Air act, if applicable of the Occupier
- Preparation of directory of the stakeholders
